Brand New Book  Print on Demand . G day, from Layla, the fun and feisty seven year old who lives Down Under! This chapter book is learning made fun.By the time they finish reading, they will receive a confidence boost and they might even want to try something new very soon! .The illustrations are amazing. I teach little kids and I m certainly going to keep this book for their next story session! Goodreads book reviewer and teacher, Saradia Chatterjee Trying new things can be scary! Layla wants to join the school Singing Club. But, what will happen if she doesn t know any of the songs? Will she sound like a screeching cockatoo? Will the other kids laugh at her? Layla is a fun and feisty seven-year-old girl who lives with her family in Brisbane, Australia. She finds out that it s hard to be brave when you re feeling scared. Will Layla join Singing Club? Can she learn to do something brave even when she is feeling scared? This second instalment in the Layla Down Under children s book series, Layla Learns to be Brave, is an easy reader chapter book for kids. Available in paperback and for Kindle, this children s book is one that 6-8 year old readers can easily navigate with its large font, easy sentences, everyday relatable situations, cute illustrations, and warm family-centred themes. An early reader children s chapter book, Layla Learns to be Brave, is set in the beautiful Australian river city of Brisbane, and explores the central theme of learning to be brave. This book is a must-have for every young child learning to read, and for...
