If these poor words of mine, born of unrest, Find in thy heart, my love, one moment s rest, Then without tear or sigh They are content to die, Having achieved, my love, their journey s quest. If these stray lines of mine, coming to thee, Breathe one fair thought, my love, coming from me, They have not lived in vain, Nor do they ask again Time to be heeded, or given a plea. If in this book of mine, thou canst but trace E en but a line that reflects thy sweet face, Naught that the world may say Can my poor Muse dismay, And for my song must the world find a place.
