There, in the Court of Chancery, he publicly accepted the oflice of Lord Protector. Then he was sworn, and the City sword was handed to him, and the seal was handed to him, and all the other things were handed to him which are usually handed to Kings and Queens on state occasions and handed back again. When Oliver had handed them all back, he was quite made and completely finished off as Lord Protector; and several of the Ironsides preached about it at greatlength, all the evening. THE MODERN PRACTICE OF PHYSIC. Nmnznous intro ductory lectures were delivered in the various hospitals of London on the first and third days of October, at the commencement of the winter session.
