But as Paul died daily, so I die yearly; and it has been the dream and hope of my later life to fill out the omitted chapters and verses, improve and revise the past work up to date, and make a permanent commentary on the New Testament. The plan is to bring the latest, the most scholarly and the best light upon the Bible, in a condensed and practical form, into the pulpit, the Sunday-school and the home. I have been encouraged to hope that this work would not be useless from the fact that the total sale of the select notes approaches a million copies. On consulting, however, with booksellers and publishers, the opinion was almost unanimous that such a commentary must not be too large. This necessitates the leaving out of the illustrations,...
