Excerpt from The Apology of Patriots, or the Heresy of the Friends of the Washington and Peace Policy Defended: A Sermon, Preached in Worcester, Massachusetts, on the Day of the National Fast, Thursday, August 20, 1812, Observed With the Recommendation of James Madison, President of the United States; And in Consequence of the Declaration of War Against Great-Britain Christianity was a heresy in the estimate of the Jewish Doctors; and, according to their decisions, its adherents were liable to a capital punishment. The federal policy is a heresy in the estimate of our National Rulers, and obnoxious, if not to legal penalties, to their severe animadversion. It would be no small gratification of curiosity to trace the analogy between these reputed heresies and their opposites. The reader will do it, if he please, in his own mind. Christianity is but a development, or farther exposition, and execution, of the religion contained in the Old Testament Scriptures. Judaism, which entirely excluded the doctrine of a Saviour, and which consisted in a course of external observances, founded principally in a traditional law, of mere human authority, was a corruption of that religion, and the real heresy. Hence, for the defence of Christianity, the Apostles constantly appealed, when they had before them Jewish auditors, to the Law, and the Prophets; and it was a leading object with them to subvert Judaism as the grand obstacle to the progress of the Gospel.
