This little book though small packs a lot of information that may surprise you. It will open your understanding to the truth of the Bible as only the author of the Bible can give to those who diligently seek him. It will show you how prophecies through the ages have been fulfilled and culminates in the prophetic climax of the destruction of Satan and the wicked dead. This little book is a treasure of knowledge you will want to keep forever. God is truly not a respecter of person, but searches the thoughts and intentions of the heart. I come from a humble background. I was born in Guyana, South America. My parents ancestry vastly differed. My father was of Chinese decent (Loo) and my mother was of mixed races (black, white and East Indian) My early Christian upbringing was due in part to both my grandmothers (widows) as well as my mother being staunch Seventh Day Adventists. My siblings and I were expected to attend church every Sabbath (Saturday) which we did dutifully. As I grew older and hearing all the churches claiming to be the true church of God, I must admit my curiosity got the better of me and I soon began to visit other Sunday churches but did not find the peace of mind that I sought. I even visited Kali Mai Poojah (an E. Indian religious ceremony that heals the sick and cast out demons just as some Christian ministers do only in a different way. I soon discovered I had some of the truth all of the time and returned to my Christian roots. It became clear to me that many...
