

Countryfied Chickens: A Cautionary Tale for Anyone Considering a Move to the Country (Paperback)

By Chas Elliott

Eight Grandkids Publishing, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Many of us have been through it - the endless hassle that comes with selling your house and moving to a new home - but this true tale is like no other. In Countryfied Chickens you'll come along as the Elliotts, a Southern California family enjoying the good life of sunshine, palm trees and their own backyard swimming pool, pull up roots and move to a land where snow-blowers replace lawnmowers, where tractors are more valued than BMWs and where deer routinely commit suicide by car. You'll be chuckling every step of the way as the author takes you through the series of mishaps and mis-steps the family experienced while selling their home and buying a bank-owned fixer-upper in what they thought was the Deal of the Century, but instead turned out to be their own back-to-work program for local contractors. Then, find out what life off the grid is really like, as the Elliotts settle into a time warp where there is no cell phone coverage, no high speed internet and where no...
