The Battle of Bosworth 1485: and the Burial of King Richard III

By Stephen Lark

Bretwalda Books. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Battle of Bosworth 1485: and the Burial of King Richard III, Stephen Lark, The recent discovery of the body of King Richard III in Leicester has heightened interest in this key medieval battle. The climatic battle of the Wars of the Roses was fought in Leicestershire in the summer of 1485 when the Lancastrian claimant Henry Tudor faced the Yorkist king, Richard III. The battle ended with King Richard surrounded and cut down by his enemies - the last British king to die in battle. Now the king's body has been found in Leicester and is due to be reburied in the city as the centrepiece of a new interpretation of the battle and the Wars of the Roses. Richard III is one of the best known of English kings, chiefly through his portrayal by Shakespeare as an evil hunchback who murdered his nephews (The Princes in the Tower), his brother and others - and the more recent efforts to restore his reputation. This book follows the standard pattern set by others in the Bretwalda Battles series. The reasons for and course of the war in question are outlined, then detailed...
