Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Simple Bible Stories: Adapted to the Capacity of Young Children, and Designed for Use in Sabbath Schools, Primary Associations, and for Home Reading The great demand for new subject matter in the primary classes of our Sabbath Schools and in Primary Associations, has induced us to publish this little book of Bible Stories. Books of this character published in the east, we find, are not entirely suitable for use among our people. This fact is also one reason for issuing this work. Brother Edwin F. Parry, who has done so much for the Sunday Schools in composing music and poetry, and in writing various articles of value, prepared these stories, which is itself a sufficient guarantee of their suitableness. It has been the aim in preparing the Simple Bible Stories to word them to suit the capacity of young children. Where difficult words necessarily occur, their meaning is explained in simple language, so that children in reading the stories will be able to understand them. To make the stories short the incidents they contain are narrated as briefly as possible. The teacher in using the book can enlarge upon each story as he chooses. To see that the children fully understand each lesson, the teacher might question them about it. Or, better still, call upon one of them to relate the story in his own way. Also, before taking up a new story for study, review the pupils on the previous one. In this way they will be enabled to connect the narratives. When they have gone over say half of the book, it would be well to give each lesson to a separate pupil...
