Not illustrated. 1835 Excerpt: . or Albert had dared to expect; and the Swiss, to whom her silver tones of welcome poured out a music more delicious than his own native airs could afford to his patriotic bosom, was ready to worship the very ground on which she trod. Albert himself was surprised at the warmth of her manner, and did not very well know how to interpret it. The countenance of his sister, however, was once again lighted up with smiles, and he was therefore easily satisfied with the result of his little project, without caring to dive very deeply into thecause. She had been miserable; she was now happy;--and content with that change, he again abandoned himself with redoubled fervour to his own mysterious sources of delight, which were fast locked within his own bosom, and from which nothing in the whole world, but the deep and palpable...
