Not illustrated. 1917 Excerpt: .mandatory power to the finding of a Board is that if, at any time before or after a Board has made its report and recommendation, both parties to the dispute agree in writing to be bound by the recommendation of the Board in the same manner as parties are bound in the case of a reference to arbitration on the order of a court of record, the recommendation shall be made a rule of the court on application of either party, and shall be enforceable in like manner. Canadian courts, however, have hesitated to regard such an agreement as constituting a rule of court. An application for a Board must be made by a party to the dispute in writing and be accompanied by a statement setting forth the parties to the dispute, its nature and cause, an estimate of the number of persons affected, and the efforts made by the parties to adjust it, and a statutory declaration that failing an adjustment of the dispute or reference thereof by the Minister to a Board, to the best of the knowledge and belief of the declarant, a lockout or strike will be declared, and (except where the application is made by an employer in consequence of an intended change in wages or hours proposed by said employer) that the necessary authority to declare such lockout or strike has been obtained; or where a dispute directly affects employees in more than one province and such employees are...
