Wildlife, Murram Bush: A Family Adventure

By Brian Dawtry

G2 Rights. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 276 pages. Dimensions: 7.9in. x 5.0in. x 0.9in. Wildlife, Murram and Bush is the story of Brian Dawtry and his wife, Jo, both farm managers, and their three children, Caroline, Richard and Philip, who in 1962 leave their comfortable life in Norfolk for Tanganyika in the Dark Continent of Africa. His dream is to teach the Africans how to improve and maximise their natural resources. The government of Tanganyika accepts his request to work on the promotion of African food production and wildlife conservation schemes. It's a wonderful dream, but how could he prepare himself for such a daunting task? He takes us on an amazing adventure that is the start of 25 years service. This is, above all, a family story, which is told with great compassion. The family have left behind a comfortable life in Norfolk for a precarious and uncertain one in Tanganyika. Everything is strange; nothing is easy and Brian is often overwhelmed by the many risks he is exposing his family to. At times the difficulties seem insurmountable. We empathise with the children too as they try to adapt to a different lifestyle. But despite the difficulties we are...
