VMI Publishers, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Grasping Heaven is the story of a young lady doctor from Denver Dr Tami Fisk. Her journey led her to do pioneer work among the Yi minority in the Great Cold Mountains of West China. After three years her promising time in China was cut short as she was diagnosed with malignant melanoma. The ensuing story is her final journey that ultimately led to her death. A story of faith, courage and a remarkable sense of humor. Grasping Heaven also reveals the striking parallels of Dr. Fisk and the life of Dr. Broomhall, who forty years ago was the first to work among the Yi. His time was cut short due to the communist take over. After three years he had to leave the country. With excerpts from Tami s journal, the book shares her anecdotes and observations of the Yi people in China, in particular her stories of being a Martian . I have recently come to a startling conclusion: I am, in fact, a Martian. Let me explain . Since being in Zhaojue, many people have gaped at me with looks that can only mean they ve discovered a life form never encountered before. Whenever I did anything, such as speak, eat, or buy things, they would congregate around me, watch in awe, and discuss it among themselves, probably commenting on how human (or not) my actions appeared. Whenever I was inside a place with windows, people would come in waves for a glimpse of this new creature. - Though to be fair, I m equally fascinated with the Yi s faces, each of which tells a different story Also included are some of her most famous stories are...
