August 6th, 1839 One of the greatest ideas ever revealed by the Divine Mind, or developed by human thought, is found in that solemn estimate which the Savior of the World made of man. Primarily it was a religious idea, but it has a scope and circumference which embrace all the capital interests of human life. It teaches us the natural dignity of Man - not of man generically, not of humanity, but of an individual human being. This is the primary fact, not only of Christianity, but of modern civilization and social progress. It is the historical and political idea which has revolutionized the world. Christianity was the first institution which recognized this indestructible worth of the mere man; it was the first institution to individualize the human race, to count its multitudes by units. Before its benignant light rose to distinguish individual forms and features, all was the...
